

Every day you may make progress. Every step may be fruitful. Yet there will stretch out before you an ever-lengthening, ever-ascending, ever-improving path. You know you will never get to the end of the journey. But this, far from discouraging, only adds to the joy and glory of the climb."

I like pigs. Dogs look up to us. Cats look down on us. Pigs treat us as equals.

Never give in! Never give in! Never, never, never. Never -- in anything great or small, large or petty -- never give in except to convictions of honour and good sense.

Never in the field of human conflict was so much owed by so many to so few.

It is no use saying, 'We are doing our best.' You have got to succeed in doing what is necessary.

I am ready to meet my Maker. Whether my Maker is prepared for the great ordeal of meeting me is another matter.

We make a living by what we get. We make a life by what we give.

History will be kind to me, for I intend to write it.

Success is the ability to go from one failure to another with no loss of enthusiasm.

Success is not final, failure is not fatal: it is the courage to continue that counts.

We shall defend our island, whatever the cost may be, we shall fight on the beaches, we shall fight on the landing grounds, we shall fight in the fields and in the streets, we shall fight in the hills ;we shall never surrender.

I am easily satisfied with the very best.

We are all worms, but I do believe that I am a glow-worm.

I have nothing to offer but blood, toil, tears and sweat.

I have never accepted what many people have kindly said, namely that I have inspired the nation. It was the nation and the race dwelling all around the globe that had the lion heart. I had the luck to be called upon to give the roar.

I cannot pretend to feel impartial about colours. I rejoice with the brilliant ones and am genuinely sorry for the poor browns.

Let us therefore brace ourselves to our duties, and so bear ourselves that, if the British Empire and its Commonwealth last for a thousand years, men will still say: "This was their finest hour."

We shall not flag or fail. We shall fight in France, we shall fight on the seas and oceans, we shall fight with growing confidence and growing strength in the air, we shall defend our island, whatever the cost may be, we shall fight on the beaches, we shall fight on the landing grounds, we shall fight in the fields and in the streets, we shall fight in the hills; we shall never surrender.

We must have a better word than "prefabricated", why not "ready-made"?

All the great things are simple, and many can be expressed in a single word: freedom; justice; honour; duty; mercy; hope.

We must beware of needless innovations, especially when guided by logic.

Courage is the first of the human qualities because it is the quality which guarantees all the others.

Victory at all costs, victory in spite of all terror, victory however long and hard the hard may be; for without victory there is no survival.

Never give in! Never give in! Never, never, never, never.... In nothing great or small, large or petty, never give in except to convictions or honour and good sense!

Where does the family start? It starts with a young man falling in love with a girl - no superior alternative has yet been found.

My most brilliant achievement was my ability to be able to persuade my wife to marry me.

Most people hate the taste of beer to begin with. It is, however, a prejudice that many people have been able to overcome.

Terminological inexactitude

Continuous efforts-not strength or intelligence-is the key to unlocking our potential.

The maxim "Nothing avails but perfection" may be spelled "Paralysis."
